John Shoro Named a Top Managing Partner by Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly

MAY 30, 2025

John Shoro has been named a 2025 “Top Managing Partner” by Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly. The honor recognizes John’s leadership in growing the firm’s revenue, developing and maintaining legal talent, engaging the firm in the communities it serves, and achieving significant milestones.

Immediate past Estate, Financial & Tax Planning Practice Area Leader at the firm, John is a highly-respected trust, estate, and tax lawyer who helps clients in Massachusetts, Connecticut and Florida with sophisticated tax, administration and planning needs. He serves many of his trust and estate clients as a Personal Representative and trustee, frequently interacting one-on-one with beneficiaries, drafting documents, and handling investments and complex tax issues. His clients include business owners, professionals, executives and other high net worth individuals.
