Chambers and Partners recognizes Bob Cox and Tim Van Dyck as Leading Attorneys

MAY 27, 2016

Chambers USA has recognized Bob Cox and Tim Van Dyck as leading lawyers in Massachusetts in their fields of Environmental Law and Labor & Employment, respectively.

In addition, Chambers has recognized Bowditch & Dewey's Labor & Employment Practice Area as among the most notable in Massachusetts.

The Chambers Guides have been ranking the best law firms and lawyers since 1990, and now cover 185 jurisdictions throughout the world. Lawyers are ranked based on research of 150 full-time editors and researchers who talk to lawyers and clients, conduct in-depth telephone and in-person interviews, and are trained in the techniques of investigative research.

FROM CHAMBERS USA 2016:

The “calm, cool and collected” Robert Cox of Bowditch & Dewey LLP is noted for his representation of clients before the Department of Environmental Protection and the Environmental Protection Agency, most notably in clean air, clean water and hazardous waste issues.

Timothy Van Dyck of Bowditch & Dewey is appreciated by sources for his “ability to translate his litigation experience into practical advice about how to handle a variety of situations,” as well as his attention to detail and practical approach. He often defends telecommunications, insurance and healthcare clients in sensitive employment litigation matters.
