

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Peter Martin presents “Tax Exempt Organizations from Start to Finish” at National Business Institute

JUNE 20, 2016

Peter Martin will present at a program on June 20 hosted by National Business Institute focusing on the legal and tax requirements for tax-exempt organizations. The program, which is designed for professionals with some previous familiarity with tax-exempt organizations, will feature discussions on:

- Incorporation process
- Establishing tax-exempt status with the IRS
- Liability of officers and directors
- Unrelated business taxable income (UBTI)
- Form 990 – key compliance points and disclosure considerations
- Advising on operational issues
- Restructuring and terminating exempt organizations: procedures and pitfalls
- Ethical considerations for EO practitioners

Read more and register for “Tax Exempt Organizations from Start to Finish” on the National Business Institute HERE.