Matt Morris co-hosts Boston Bar Association panel “Tax Reform Under the Trump Administration: What Practitioners Should Expect”

APRIL 1, 2017

On May 23, Matt Morris will co-host a panel focusing on President Trump’s and Republican legislators’ proposed sweeping tax reforms. Topics will include:

- Reduction corporate income tax rate to 15%
- Capping “pass-through” business income tax rate at 15%
- Abolishing estate and gift taxes
- Changes to border adjustment tax

Discussion will also center on the likelihood of these tax reforms transitioning from bill to law. You can read more about “Tax Reform Under the Trump Administration: What Practitioners Should Expect” on the Boston Bar Association’s website.
