Press Release: Bowditch & Dewey, LLP Joins MSI Global Alliance

AUGUST 17, 2017

Massachusetts Law Firm Expands Global Resources

BOSTON, MA (August 17, 2017) – Bowditch & Dewey, LLP is pleased to announce its appointment as the newest member of the MSI Global Alliance, one of the world's leading international associations of independent legal and accounting firms.

With nearly 60 lawyers in three Massachusetts locations, Bowditch & Dewey, LLP offers a depth of practice in several areas of practice of law, including business and finance, real estate and environmental law, litigation, employment and labor (including immigration), estate and tax planning, and tax controversy. Fortune 500 companies, start-ups, institutions, and individuals rely on the firm to craft their business and legal strategies.

James D. Hanrahan, managing partner of Bowditch & Dewey, LLP, commented, "Our partners view the global reach provided by membership in MSI as both a client service and competitive advantage. The network has already proven to be a valuable resource to our clients with international needs. We look forward to a rewarding and effective partnership with all member firms."

Matthew A. Morris, partner at Bowditch & Dewey, LLP, stated, "We are particularly attracted to MSI because of its domestic and global reach and its emphasis on mid-size firms. We share a similar breadth of expertise with our fellow MSI member firms, which will enable us to share our knowledge and offer our clients unique access to an international network of legal and tax professionals."

Tim Wilson, chief executive of MSI, went on to say, "I am delighted to welcome this new addition to the MSI family. Bowditch & Dewey is a well-established and highly-respected law firm with a strong reputation throughout New England. I know they will contribute greatly to MSI, both within North America and internationally."

Christopher Rock, partner at Bowditch & Dewey said, "The MSI leadership is extremely well-organized and will help to ensure that we find the right match for long-term referral relationships in many different practice areas. It is exciting to have MSI as an asset to address difficult legal questions within specific jurisdictions. We are pleased to be part of the network."
