

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Chelsie Vokes elected Vice President of the Lake Quinsigamond Watershed Association

SEPTEMBER 21, 2017

Congratulations to Chelsie Vokes for being elected Vice President of the Lake Quinsigamond Watershed Association (LQWA) in Shrewsbury, MA.

The LQWA is a volunteer-based organization of nearly 150 members committed to enhancing the quality of life in and around Lake Quinsigamond for all of its natural and human residents. A unique feature of Lake Quinsigamond is its special regulatory council created to govern the uses and abuses of its water. This distinction is shared with no other similar body of waters in the commonwealth.