Bowditch & Dewey hosts EBC Ascending Professionals Committee Program Planning Meeting

JANUARY 11, 2018

The firm hosted the Environmental Business Council's Ascending Professionals Committee Program Planning Meeting, which Bob Cox and Chelsie Vokes attended. At the meeting, Cox discussed the "Twists & Turns of an Environmental Career."

The mission of the EBC Ascending Professionals Committee is to identify issues of concern to new, young environmental professionals. These issues include career and professional skills development, understanding existing and developing legislation and regulations, and networking.
