Wage & Hour Issues on Campus

Even innocent and unintended classification and wage payment errors can be costly. This program will focus on those classification and wage payment issues that are unique and common on college campuses, including:

- Current exempt and non-exempt classification rules
- Consultants: Are they really your employees?
- Coaches
- Interns
- Volunteers
- Student employees

Learn the rules and pitfalls and how to minimize exposure, for you and your school, to avoid expensive damages and penalties. This is your opportunity to ask our experts the questions that have been keeping you up at night.
