Doug Radigan quoted by Worcester Telegram & Gazette

MAY 8, 2018

The Worcester Telegram & Gazette quoted Doug Radigan in, “Efforts to Keep College Grads in Worcester Paying Off, Local Leaders Say.” When local graduates walk across the stage, will they just be saying goodbye to their alma mater, or the city of Worcester too?

Radigan, President of the Worcester Young Businessmen’s Association, commented, “I think I’ve seen a dramatic shift in attitudes about Worcester among younger folks,” which may not be entirely due to a cheaper cost-of-living. He elaborated that, “There’s a better lifestyle here than there was before.”
