

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Joshua Lee Smith appointed to Westborough Economic Development Committee

JULY 12, 2018

Joshua Lee Smith has been appointed to the Westborough Economic Development Committee (EDC), which has been serving the town of Westborough since 2008. Smith's term will run through June 2019. As a committee member, Smith will be responsible for devising plans and strategies aimed at retaining and growing the Town's commercial base and encouraging new businesses to move to, and/or build development projects within the Town. Smith will also advise the Board of Selectmen on economic development policy and review proposed amendments to the Town's zoning bylaw.

For more information on the committee, visit the Westborough EDC website.