

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Worcester Telegram & Gazette publishes, “Leading by example: AiVi Nguyen once accepted charity, now heads up United Way board”

JULY 30, 2018

The Worcester Telegram & Gazette has published, “Leading by example: AiVi Nguyen once accepted charity, now heads up United Way Board.” The article serves as a testament to AiVi’s dedication to philanthropy in the city of Worcester – the community that helped shape her.

Growing up poor as a Vietnamese immigrant, AiVi relied heavily on community programs similar to those the United Way supports. Her gratitude remains obvious through her commitment to Worcester and her proven track record of giving back. As the United Way of Central Massachusetts’ newest board Chair, AiVi plans to “engage donors in a different way” to further promote the success of the city’s outreach programs and services.

To learn more about AiVi’s story and mission to support the Worcester community, continue to the Worcester Telegram website.