

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Maria Remillard to speak at Mass. Bar Association's Sixth Annual Probate Law Conference

NOVEMBER 6, 2018

Maria Remillard will speak on a panel at the Massachusetts Bar Association's Sixth Annual Probate Law Conference with respect to the use of motions to strike and motions for summary judgment in will contest cases.

This sold out conference is the largest gathering of probate practitioners in the Commonwealth. The conference offers 20 courses, each providing timely updates about probate practices, procedures and forms, new regulations, and important court decisions. Featured topics will include:

- MUPC late and limited proceedings
- ABC's of guardianship
- Resolving will contests by motions to strike and motions for summary judgment
- MassHealth updates
- Guardianships involving alcohol, opioids and other substances

For more information about the Massachusetts Bar Association's Sixth Annual Probate Law Conference, visit the MassBar website.