

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Kristin Shirahama Named to The Commonwealth Institute's Corporate Advisory Board

MARCH 18, 2019

The Commonwealth Institute (TCI) recently relaunched its Corporate Advisory Board, naming Kristin Shirahama a member.

TCI's 15-member Corporate Advisory Board is co-chaired by former Massachusetts Lieutenant Governor Evelyn Murphy and Jeff Swartz of Morgan Stanley. It is made up of senior leaders from TCI partner firms.

The Corporate Advisory Board advises TCI's board of directors on marketing and positioning TCI in the business community, works with the Executive Director and the board to build partnerships with key employers, and provides input on program concepts to meet the needs of employers in advancing women employees.

You can see all the members of TCI's Corporate Advisory Board here.