

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Samantha McDonald to Moderate Panel at Worcester Women's Leadership Conference

APRIL 4, 2019

Samantha McDonald will moderate a panel on “Becoming Ms. Worcester – Getting Involved in Your Community” on April 11 at the Worcester Regional Chamber of Commerce’s Worcester Women’s Leadership Conference, taking place at the DCU Center.

Aimed at women looking to get involved in the Worcester community, this panel of well-connected women will share stories and knowledge about how they enhanced their careers by being involved in the community. They will provide insight about how to pursue community involvement opportunities, whether it is volunteering at local events or obtaining a board position, and how this engagement has furthered their careers.

Other panelists will include:

- Valerie Zolezzi-Wyndham, Esq., Founder/owner of Promoting Good LLC
- Suzanne Campbell-Lambert, Unum
- Liz Wambui, Nativity School

You can learn more about the Worcester Women's Leadership Conference here.