Katherine Garrahan Introduces Governor Charlie Baker at Bowditch-Sponsored MetroWest Chamber Exec-Connect Luncheon

JUNE 5, 2019

Katherine Garrahan, chair of the board for the MetroWest Chamber of Commerce, will introduce Governor Charlie Baker, keynote speaker at the MetroWest Chamber's Exec-Connect Luncheon, taking place June 18 at 11:30 a.m. at the Verve Crowne Plaza, Boston-Natick.

Governor Baker's speech will touch on his economic priorities for both the Commonwealth and MetroWest, including investments in transportation, housing and education.

The luncheon is part of a series by the MetroWest Chamber that allows industry leaders and executives to network and receive information from other thought leaders, C-level executives, local municipal officials and business professionals. Past speakers have included figures in state government such as Lieutenant Governor Karyn Polito and Senator Ed Markey.
