

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Jennifer Irvine Joins ArtsWorcester Board of Directors

OCTOBER 24, 2019

Jennifer Irvine, Bowditch's director of marketing and business development, has joined the Board of Directors of ArtsWorcester, a nonprofit organization that has been engaging artists and the public to sustain and celebrate contemporary art for the last 40 years.

Jennifer will serve a three-year term, along with other new members Jeanie Connolly, vice president of commercial lending at Bay State Savings Bank; Betty Blute, a development associate at the Hanover Theatre for the Performing Arts; and Vanessa Calixto, a coordinator for the Clemente Course in the Humanities education program and a co-founder of The Creative Minds Collective.

You can learn more about ArtsWorcester and their mission here.