Jonathan Hausner Elected Secretary of CMAA New England

JUNE 17, 2020

The Construction Management Association of America (CMAA) New England chapter elected Jonathan Hausner as secretary. Jonathan has been involved with CMAA for his entire career, and was a member of the board for years before taking a break in 2017. He has extensive experience in construction contracting and construction litigation, including public and private procurement, contract drafting and negotiation, litigation and alternative dispute resolution. He will resume working with the legislative affairs committee to track and report on legislation that has an impact on the AEC (Architecture, Engineering, and Construction) industry.

The CMAA New England chapter was founded in 1991 and has grown from just a small group of dedicated professionals to over 500 members. Their mission is to, “promote the profession of Construction Management and the use of qualified Construction Managers on capital projects and programs.”
