Press Release: Leading Estate Planning Attorney Dale A. Kaiser Joins Bowditch & Dewey as Partner

JANUARY 11, 2021

Attorney Also Concentrates on Family Business Planning, and Estate and Trust Administration

Framingham, Worcester and Boston, MA—January 11, 2021—Attorney Dale A. Kaiser, an experienced attorney focusing her practice on estate and family business planning, and estate and trust administration, has joined Bowditch & Dewey as a partner in Framingham.

She comes to the firm after more than two decades leading Kaiser Law Group, which she founded in 1999.

“Dale Kaiser is highly regarded for her legal acumen and the individualized attention that she provides to every client. We have hoped for some time that she would consider bringing her considerable strengths to our firm,” said John F. Shoro, Partner and Estate, Financial & Tax Planning Practice Area Leader, Bowditch.

“I have long admired Bowditch’s robust estate planning practice, and am excited that my clients will benefit from it,” said Ms. Kaiser. “Bowditch’s dedication to exceptional service and thorough, prudent counsel matches my own.”

Drawing on more than 30 years of professional experience, Ms. Kaiser works on all aspects of estate and gift planning, including generation-skipping, asset protection, special needs and charitable planning. She also advises fiduciaries on probate, estate taxes, trust funding and distributions, and helps business owners with company formation and succession planning.

A Needham resident, Ms. Kaiser earned the Accredited Estate Planner® (AEP) designation from the National Association of Estate Planners and Councils (NAEPC) and the Boston Estate Planning Council (BEPC), in recognition of her graduate-level specialization, experience and character. She holds a J.D. and M.Ed. from the State University of New York at Buffalo and a B.A. from the University of Rochester.
