

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Brian Grossman and MVWIFI Prevail in Martha's Vineyard Cell Tower Case

MARCH 31, 2021

The Martha's Vineyard Times reports in its article "Cell tower case against MVC, AT&T dismissed," that Superior Court Judge Paul Wilson dismissed a lawsuit brought by nearby landowners against the Martha's Vineyard Commission and AT&T over the lawfulness of a 115-foot cell tower near their Chappaquiddick home.

Brian Grossman, a partner in the firm's Real Estate and Environmental practice, who represented the co-defendant landowner MVWIFI, called Judge Wilson's decision "extraordinarily thorough." He added, "We're happy and thrilled with the verdict."

Read the full 36-page ruling.

The decision was also reported in the Vineyard Gazette, "Superior Court Judge Dismisses Chappy Cell Tower Suit."