INSIGHTS + NEWS

A Brave New World: Corporate Policies & Procedures Post-COVID (Webinar)

Recent experience, as well as, surveys of in-house counsel indicate that legal matters continue to increase and impact companies across a broad spectrum of industries. The recent COVID pandemic has highlighted the need for every size organizations to proactively and retroactively examine their internal policies and procedures to appropriately identify and mitigate risks to their organizations.

During “A Brave New World: Corporate Policies & Procedures Post-COVID” on April 15, 2021, presented by the Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) Northeast, the speakers addressed the importance of planning and developing a business continuity and risk management strategy to ensure success especially in a challenging business environment like we all experienced in 2020.

Topics explored included:

- Business continuity from an internal and external perspective
- Document retention and preservation
- Data privacy
- Reputational impact and integrity preservation

Watch recording:

©2026 Bowditch & Dewey LLP. All Rights Reserved.