

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Jon Barooshian Awarded Marlborough Regional Chamber of Commerce's 2020 President's Award for Outstanding Member of the Year

MAY 3, 2021

Jon Barooshian received the Marlborough Regional Chamber of Commerce's 2020 President's Award for Outstanding Member of the Year.

Rob Schlacter, President of the Marlborough Regional Chamber of Commerce, presented Jon with this award and stated that he "was and has always been a calming voice in counseling me through some very difficult challenges and obvious unprecedented impact on our lives due to the pandemic. I can always count [on Jon] for thoughtful insight, confident counsel, and I'm very grateful to have his perspective, as well as friendship, as we continue to move through to recovery in our business community."

The mission of the Marlborough Regional Chamber of Commerce is to lead "the region in the effective delivery of value-added networking and referral events, advocacy on behalf of members, lead generation, business services and ongoing training and education that drive growth."