David Mawhinney Spoke at “What You Need to Know About Subchapter V Bankruptcy” (Webinar)

On May 4, 2021, David Mawhinney spoke at the webinar “What you need to know about Subchapter V bankruptcy” presented by Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly.

Financially troubled small businesses have a better shot at avoiding liquidation and achieving reorganization under a new addition to the Bankruptcy Code that went into effect last year.

The change is particularly relevant given the ongoing pandemic, and offers an important tool for hard-hit businesses.

An expert panel covered a range of topics, including a discussion of the provision and its advantages, an overview of where things stand now, tools for determining if Subchapter V makes sense for your business, and a close look at current cases.
