AiVi Nguyen Selected for the Worcester Business Journal Power 50

MAY 10, 2021

AiVi Nguyen, a partner in Bowditch's litigation practice, has been selected for the Worcester Business Journal's (WBJ) Power 50 Class of 2021.

The Power 50 is compiled by the WBJ and is comprised of the 50 most influential people in the Central Massachusetts economy, defined as "anyone who can use their influence to make change in Central Massachusetts." The list includes people from all walks of life and professions.

AiVi Nguyen was featured in the "Money & Influence" category. Her involvement in and dedication to her community in Central Massachusetts were highlighted with high praise.

If one was tasked with naming a woman with her finger on the pulse of the Worcester business community, there's a good chance the first name to come to mind would be AiVi Nguyen.

...But Nguyen's influence exceeds her work at a high-profile Worcester law firm and into the nonprofit sector.
