Press Release: Demonstrating Commitment to Excellence in Law, Bowditch & Dewey Becomes Boston Bar Association Sponsor Firm

AUGUST 3, 2021

New Sponsorship Builds on Strong Relationship with BBA

Boston, Framingham and Worcester, MA—Aug 3, 2021—Aligning with the Boston Bar Association's (BBA) commitment to excellence in the law, Bowditch & Dewey has become a BBA Sponsor Firm.

The sponsorship builds on Bowditch's already active role with this premier legal institution, which also fosters access to justice, a diverse and inclusive legal community, and service to the Boston area at large.

With offices in Boston, Framingham and Worcester, Bowditch's partners are already actively contributing to the BBA through committee roles, educational programs, and championship of key initiatives.

"We're thrilled to support the organization that is the lifeblood of every attorney in Greater Boston," said Robert D. (Bob) Cox, Jr., Managing Partner. "Its educational programs, tools and resources are indispensable to all of us."

"The Boston Bar Association is instrumental in upholding the highest standards of practice in a changing world. This strengthening of our relationship helps ensure that all our attorneys, and the community at large, will gain the maximum benefit from its services," said Patrick S. Tracey, Partner and a recent member of the BBA Governing Council.

In addition to Mr. Tracey, Bowditch attorneys from Boston and Framingham who are active with the BBA include:

- Rory Z. Fazendeiro, Partner and Member of the Business Litigation Committee
- David A. Mawhinney, Member of the Bankruptcy Education and Bench Bar Committee
- Kyle G. Munns, Member of the Trusts & Estates Steering Committee
- Leah Rochwarg, Partner and current Co-chair of the Construction Law section
- Christopher R. Rock, Partner and former Co-chair of the Real Estate Section
