David Mawhinney Presented at ABI's Northeast Bankruptcy Conference & Northeast Consumer Forum

David Mawhinney presented on the panel “150 Days in the Life of a Subchapter V Reorganization” at the American Bankruptcy Institute’s (ABI) Northeast Bankruptcy Conference & Northeast Consumer Forum in Rockport, Maine.

David and his panel presented on July 15 from 9:30 to 10:45 am and focused on the life cycle of a small business reorganization. Speakers discussed pre-bankruptcy planning and negotiation, debated eligibility and case management issues, considered best practices for utilizing the Subchapter V trustee throughout the case, and highlighted tips and traps of plan formulation, contested confirmation hearings and post-effective date matters. The panel featured the perspectives of the debtor, the creditor, the Subchapter V trustee and the bench.
