INSIGHTS + NEWS

Danielle Lederman Moderated Massachusetts Bar Association Program "Considerations for Settling Employment Cases"

Danielle Lederman moderated the Massachusetts Bar Association's (MBA) program "Considerations for Settling Employment Cases" on December 8. Developed by the MBA's Labor & Employment Section, the webinar provided an overview of the key issues and considerations in settling employment law claims. Panelists covered a variety of topics, including:

- Effective settlement negotiations
- Release of claim provisions
- Categories of settlement payment
- Related tax law implications
- Medicare provisions in settlement agreements

Speakers discussed best practices when advising clients on these topics, from both management and employee perspectives. Attendees also received up-to-date tips from experts in the field on settlement strategies and how to effectively negotiate a resolution to employment law claims.

Watch Recording

©2026 Bowditch & Dewey LLP. All Rights Reserved.