Press Release: Amy Morrissey Joins Bowditch's Business & Finance Practice as Partner

DECEMBER 14, 2022

Worcester, Framingham and Boston, MA – December 14, 2022 – Amy E. Morrissey, former senior vice president and general counsel at Computacenter, has joined Bowditch & Dewey's Business and Finance practice area as a partner.

Morrissey spent more than a decade as general counsel for Computacenter and oversaw multiple departments, including legal and operations, with more than 170 team members. She is well-versed in complex general corporate matters, litigation, employment law, and mergers and acquisitions. A seasoned negotiator with strong analytical skills, she managed large-scale projects at Computacenter, oversaw company policy, and supervised a team of 16 direct reports as well as outside counsel.

"Amy's experience working as general counsel brings a unique perspective to the practice area," said Paul C. Bauer, Bowditch's practice area leader for real estate, finance, and corporate law. "We are thrilled to add her skill set to the team."

"As a mid-sized law firm with a collaborative approach to client service, Bowditch offers the ideal platform to continue developing a private practice. Bowditch's suite of business and private client legal services is impressive, and I look forward to working with attorneys in every practice," said Morrissey.

She left Computacenter in 2021 when she founded ONA Legal Services where she provided outside general counsel legal services with a focus on business formation and advice, M&A, IPO readiness, as well as contract negotiation, risk management strategies, general legal compliance, and improving policies and procedures for start-ups and Fortune 100/500 companies.

As a strategic legal professional, business leader, and board strategist, Morrissey has had success driving exceptional growth for companies through acquisitions and establishing legal, corporate, compliance, risk, and pricing models, guaranteeing financial value, and delivering outstanding ROI for public and private corporations.

A graduate of Purdue University, Morrissey earned her law degree at New England School of Law.
