Jeffrey Gribouski Named Board Member of Crocodile River Music, Appointed Governance Committee Co-Chair

AUGUST 7, 2023

Jeffrey Gribouski has been named a board member of Crocodile River Music and appointed Governance Committee Co-Chair. Crocodile River Music brings the music, art and culture of Africa to New England and beyond, spreading awareness and inspiring new ways of cultural thinking. The organization's concerts, workshops, lectures, and other educational programs showcase emerging and established African artists.

At Bowditch, Jeffrey is an associate in the firm's litigation group and has experience handling many aspects of litigation, from pre-suit through settlement. He has worked with clients on a number of legal issues, including personal injury, property damage, products liability, insurance coverage, and environmental law.
