Lynette Paczkowski Named to Executive Council of National Conference of Bar Presidents

AUGUST 24, 2023

Lynette Paczkowski will serve on the Executive Council of the National Conference of Bar Presidents (NCBP) as a Member-at-Large. Founded in 1950, the NCBP provides information and training to state and local bar association leaders. The organization's current members include state, local and special focus bars from 53 states and territories. Individual members include past bar leaders from these jurisdictions. The Executive Council, which functions as the organization's governing board, consists of recent bar presidents who participated in NCBP programming and networking when they were leading their respective bars and who want to share their experiences and perspectives with current bar leaders.

At Bowditch, Lynette is a pragmatic and trusted advisor with extensive experience advocating for her clients at trial and appellate courts across Massachusetts. She routinely guides and helps individuals navigate prenuptial agreements, divorces, child custody issues, and other domestic and familial disputes. She also represents individual and corporate clients from various industries, including construction, utility, professional services, real estate, nonprofit and education, in litigation matters and litigation-avoidance strategies in the areas of construction litigation, land use disputes and tort-related claims.
