Joshua Lee Smith Named to Board of Directors for Worcester Regional Chamber of Commerce

JANUARY 8, 2024

Joshua Lee Smith has been named to the Board of Directors for the Worcester Regional Chamber of Commerce. The largest Chamber in New England, the organization is dedicated to enhancing the region's economic prosperity and the vitality of the area's business community. It is the lead organization in the city's strategic effort to recruit new businesses to the area, retain and develop a talented workforce, and foster entrepreneurial innovation in Worcester and the region.

A land use and real estate lawyer, Josh focuses his practice on complex commercial real estate matters involving permitting, acquisitions, leasing, environmental compliance and financing. His clients primarily consist of developers, public and private corporations, public utility companies, colleges and universities, and lending institutions. Josh works on a variety of matters involving urban and suburban developments and mixed-use multifamily, retail, office, public utility, industrial, education and hotel projects.
