

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Ashley Barnes Selected for 2024 Boston's Future Leaders Program

APRIL 10, 2024

Ashley Barnes has been selected to participate in the 2024 Boston's Future Leaders program, which the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce presents in partnership with Harvard Business School. Launched in 2004, the program provides numerous opportunities for its members, including learning from world-renowned faculty at Harvard Business School. It also provides emerging and promising leaders with a socially conscious and civically engaged leadership toolkit blending academic content, practical application and networking. Participants graduate with the skills, experiences and connections needed to lead Boston and the region into an equitable, innovative future.

At Bowditch, Ashley is an associate in the firm's litigation practice area and works on a wide range of matters, including business, construction and employment-related disputes.