Bowditch Launches All in the Family Blog to Analyze Divorce, Family Law and Fiduciary Litigation Matters

JUNE 18, 2024

Bowditch is pleased to announce the launch of All in the Family, a blog that will cover topics in all areas related to divorce, family law and fiduciary litigation. The blog will highlight recent court decisions and important case law and will include practical tips for individuals and families as they navigate the complexities and emotional difficulties of divorce, family law matters and fiduciary disputes. The blog team, consisting of attorneys in the firm's Family Law & Divorce and Fiduciary Litigation practice areas, will provide insightful commentary and analysis for clients on a wide range of topics including:

- Prenuptial and postnuptial agreements
- Separation agreements
- Divorce-related issues including the division of marital assets such as real estate, investments, business, inheritance and retirement assets, as well as the division of debt
- Child custody and parenting issues
- Child support and alimony
- Litigation of parentage actions
- Civil proceedings arising from divorce matters, including abuse prevention orders and harassment prevention orders
- Advice for clients involved in mediation, arbitration or conciliation for family law issues
- Estate disputes among family members, such as conflicts about the validity of a will, power of attorney or medical proxy
- Information about 209A Abuse Prevention Orders and 258E Harassment Prevention Orders

Subscribe to the All in the Family blog to stay up to date on all aspects of divorce, family law and fiduciary litigation in Massachusetts and Rhode Island.
