Leah Rochwarg Selected to Participate in Massachusetts Bar Association's Development/Construction Law Practice Group

AUGUST 13, 2024

Leah Rochwarg has been selected to participate in the Massachusetts Bar Association's (MBA's) Development/Construction Law Practice Group, which is part of the MBA's Real Estate section. In her practice group role, Leah will organize education programs, review legislation, compile articles for Section Review and take on other responsibilities that support the section.

At Bowditch, Leah manages a transactional and dispute resolution practice focused primarily on construction law, real estate, and complex commercial matters. She counsels clients at all stages of construction and development projects, from assisting with the drafting of requests for proposals, through the negotiation of contract documents, to providing project and contract administration assistance and dispute avoidance advice, the preparation and analysis of claims, and dispute resolution.
