Tony Dragga Elected President of Estate and Business Planning Council of Worcester County

AUGUST 28, 2024

Tony Dragga has been elected president of the Estate and Business Planning Council of Worcester County. Established in 1960, the Council is comprised of estate and tax planning attorneys, certified public accountants, financial advisors, insurance advisors, planned giving professionals and professionals from other related disciplines. Since its inception, the organization has provided a forum for members to learn more about estate and business planning, and gain a better understanding of the services offered by various professional disciplines that could be of benefit to their clients.

At Bowditch, Tony is a member of the firm's Estate, Financial & Tax Planning practice area and works with business owners, distinguished professionals, senior executives, and high net worth individuals to develop personalized plans to reduce or eliminate estate, gift, and income taxes. Clients also rely on Tony in a variety of matters including the investment and division of assets, identification and appraisal of estate and trust assets, preparing and filing federal and state estate tax returns, and collection of life insurance and employee benefits.
