INSIGHTS + NEWS

Tom Scannell Named to Board of Directors of Colony Retirement Homes

JANUARY 22, 2025

Tom Scannell has been named to the Board of Directors of Colony Retirement Homes, a nonprofit organization that provides safe, affordable apartments, service coordination, and wellness services along with an invigorating independent living experience, specially designed and equipped for older adults.

At Bowditch, Tom is a staunch advocate who focuses on delivering successful, prompt and efficient results. He has extensive trial, arbitration and mediation experience and a broad litigation practice in which he handles a variety of commercial disputes. Tom focuses on all aspects of civil trial practice before state and federal courts in Massachusetts with an emphasis on business and construction disputes, commercial real estate disputes, including landlord and tenant issues, and insurance defense.

©2026 Bowditch & Dewey LLP. All Rights Reserved.