Joseph Duquette Selected for 2025 Boston's Future Leaders Program

MARCH 14, 2025

Joseph Duquette has been selected to participate in the 2025 Boston's Future Leaders program, which the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce presents in partnership with Harvard Business School. This ten-month program allows emerging leaders in the Boston area the opportunity to learn from world-renowned faculty at Harvard Business School. Participants engage in workshops focused on management, inclusive leadership and effective communications. The cohort also works with one another, creating a network of leaders across various industries.

At Bowditch, Joe is an associate in the firm's real estate practice, focusing on complex commercial real estate matters primarily involving permitting and environmental compliance. He has successfully permitted a wide variety of projects involving high-density multifamily, public utility infrastructure, higher education, and renewable energy, as well as large-scale industrial and life science developments. Joe's experience also includes representing breweries, wineries, distilleries, restaurants, and retailers in all stages of licensing and regulatory compliance.
