

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Joseph Duquette Moderated Boston Bar Association Program About Zoning

Joseph Duquette moderated the Boston Bar Association virtual program “What’s Zoning? A Primer on What it is, and Why it Matters to Everyone” on April 29. The program gave lawyers and law students a brief overview into the world of zoning, how it works in the Commonwealth and in the City of Boston, and how the ramifications of these regimes ripple through the economy and our daily lives.