Press Release: Bowditch Celebrates Major Milestones Across Massachusetts

JULY 10, 2025

Boston, Framingham, Worcester and Plymouth, MA – July 10, 2025 – Bowditch is celebrating a landmark year of milestones in 2025 with significant updates to its office locations across Massachusetts, including the official opening of its expanded office space at 75 Federal Street in Boston, new headquarters in Worcester's iconic Glass Tower at 446 Main Street, and a new office in Plymouth.

The moves reflect Bowditch's ongoing commitment to serving clients throughout the Commonwealth and beyond and investing in the communities where its people live and work. The new Boston and Worcester locations were recently celebrated with clients and friends' events that drew over 450 guests and featured professionally curated pairings of craft beer, wine, whiskey, cheese, chocolate and mocktails.

"Our roots in Massachusetts run deep and our new offices reflect our commitment to the communities we serve," said Tina Bussone, Executive Director at Bowditch. "With new and upgraded spaces in Worcester, Boston, and Plymouth, we're building environments that reflect the modern, collaborative, and client-focused culture at the heart of our firm."

For more than 100 years, Bowditch's experienced legal counsel has served a wide variety of corporate, nonprofit, institutional and private clients. These new locations offer increased accessibility to both new and existing clients, showcasing Bowditch's strong community presence and impact in various markets.

"Bowditch is proud to be evolving alongside some of the Commonwealth's largest cities," said John Shoro, Managing Partner at Bowditch. "In recent years, the Bay State has seen a boom in innovation and investment. At Bowditch, our work mirrors these same trends—innovation in the work we do for our clients and investment in our team of talented attorneys and professional staff who continue to create ties to the community."
