Elizabeth Crowley Spoke on Prenuptial & Postnuptial Agreements at Boston Estate Planning Council Roundtable

Elizabeth Crowley led a discussion on prenuptial and postnuptial agreements at the Boston Estate Planning Council's January 20, 2026, virtual roundtable, offering practical drafting tips and strategic guidance for practitioners navigating this evolving area of law.

Drawing on her experience as a family law attorney, Elizabeth examined the critical intersection of estate planning and family law, highlighting how these disciplines impact one another. Attendees gained valuable insight into effective planning considerations after marriage, with a focus on anticipating and addressing potential issues to better serve clients.
