Joseph Duquette Named to Board of Directors for Hopkinton Center for the Arts

FEBRUARY 4, 2026

Joseph Duquette has been named to the Board of Directors of the Hopkinton Center for the Arts (HCA), a vibrant visual and performing arts organization serving the MetroWest community. HCA offers a wide range of classes and programs for youth, teens and adults, reaching more than 2,000 students each year.

At Bowditch, Joe focuses his practice on complex commercial real estate matters, with an emphasis on permitting and environmental compliance. He advises clients across all facets of real estate development and has successfully permitted a broad range of projects, including high-density multifamily housing, public utility infrastructure, higher education facilities, renewable energy projects, and large-scale industrial and life sciences developments. Joe also represents breweries, wineries, distilleries, restaurants and retailers throughout all stages of licensing and regulatory compliance.
