

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Nina Dow Named to Development Committee of New England Botanic Garden at Tower Hill

MARCH 17, 2026

Nina Dow has been named to the Development Committee of the New England Botanic Garden at Tower Hill, a nonprofit organization dedicated to horticulture, education and environmental stewardship.

Located in Boylston, Massachusetts, the 200-acre, four-season botanic garden is open to the public year-round and offers garden viewing, trail walking, educational programs, exhibitions and more. The organization places sustainability and environmental stewardship at the forefront of its work. In her role on the committee, Nina will help the organization advance its mission and expand its impact within the community.

At Bowditch, Nina focuses her practice on planning to minimize transfer taxes, including estate and tax planning that involves charitable giving, business succession planning, the representation of corporate and individual fiduciaries, and planning for individuals with special needs. In addition to helping clients create an estate plan, Nina's tax practice involves working closely with families to prepare state and federal estate tax returns following the death of a loved one.