

INSIGHTS + NEWS

Joshua Lee Smith Discusses Potential New Shrewsbury Supermarket

MARCH 31, 2026

In Shrewsbury, MA, a former Stop & Shop grocery store has been vacant for over a year. Now, Apna Bazar, an Indian grocer founded over 35 years ago and with dozens of locations across the country, is planning to move into the vacant space. The store hopes to open by the start of June. Joshua Lee Smith discussed the project with the Community Advocate:

A March 18 meeting held with several key Shrewsbury government stakeholders ended on a positive note, said Joshua Lee Smith, a real estate lawyer at Bowditch & Dewey representing Apna Bazar... “The town has been more than welcoming with respect to what we’re going to do here,” said Lee Smith.

Continue reading “New supermarket ready for abandoned Shrewsbury Stop & Shop site” on the Community Advocate website.