Michael Dickman Named to Board of Directors for Massachusetts Defense Lawyers Association

JUNE 9, 2026

Michael Dickman has been named to the Board of Directors for the Massachusetts Defense Lawyers Association (Mass DLA), a professional organization of trial lawyers who represent corporations, individuals and insurance companies in civil litigation. Through educational programming, advocacy initiatives and professional development opportunities, MassDLA works to advance the interests of the defense bar and promote excellence in the legal profession.

At Bowditch, Mike represents individuals and companies in complex civil disputes. His practice focuses on commercial, construction, and real estate litigation, with experience representing owners, developers, contractors, and other businesses.
