Jason O'Dwyer Named to Board of Directors for Massachusetts Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division

AUGUST 25, 2026

Jason O'Dwyer has been named to the Board of Directors for the Massachusetts Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division. He will be working with the association to plan networking, educational, and community service programs for new lawyers and law students in Massachusetts.

At Bowditch, Jason assists clients with construction, real estate, commercial, employment, and general business disputes. His work includes early liability assessment, risk counseling, intensive pre-suit investigation, and complex litigation management.
