Cecelia Spiers Selected for Massachusetts Bar Association's Leadership Academy

OCTOBER 28, 2026

Cecelia Spiers has been selected as an academy fellow for the Massachusetts Bar Association's (MBA) Leadership Academy for 2026-2027. This program is for attorneys with 3-10 years of experience and, through an intensive application process, is designed to recruit and nurture future bar and civic leaders. The Academy provides fellows with an opportunity to network, collaborate and build relationships with bar leaders; develop and enhance leadership skills important to their future in the legal profession; and get an insider's look at the important role the MBA plays within the legal system.

At Bowditch, Cecelia is a civil litigator who represents clients through all stages of litigation, from early case assessment through motion practice and court appearances in Massachusetts courts. She is known for her ability to distill complex legal, medical, and insurance-related issues into clear, actionable guidance, helping clients make informed decisions throughout the litigation process.
