Consumerization Of Life Science: What Tenants Want – And Need (Webinar)

BY PAUL C. BAUER • MARCH 16, 2021

Paul Bauer will speak at the webinar "Consumerization Of Life Science: What Tenants Want – And Need" as part of Bisnow's Boston Life Sciences Forum.

Topics will include:

- How are the needs of life science tenants changing in the current climate and what are the implications of those changes for site selection, planning and development?
- Are life science developments incorporating building and management technology to optimize operations and engage the community? If so, which technologies?
- Biomedical fit outs are costly, how can you create spaces that are adaptable as end user needs evolve/tenants change?
