Mark Borenstein Named Co-chair of the Worcester County Bar Association's Municipal Law Section

SEPTEMBER 21, 2023

Mark Borenstein has been named Co-chair of the Worcester County Bar Association's Municipal Law Section. The organization's mission is to maintain the honor of the profession, to promote the administration of justice, to advance the science of jurisprudence, to promote legal education, and to foster and encourage cooperation and good fellowship among the members of the bar. Serving Worcester County lawyers and the Worcester County community since 1887, the Worcester County Bar Association offers programs and services of interest and assistance to attorneys and the community at large.

Mark is an experienced real estate attorney who handles complex land use matters, acquisitions and dispositions, and leasing matters. At Bowditch, he represents clients in a variety of land use and zoning matters relating to the development of commercial, residential, mixed-use, industrial, life science and institutional projects throughout Central Massachusetts. As a lifelong resident of Worcester, clients often turn to Mark for his broad knowledge of the local Worcester community, culture, and businesses. He is known as a resourceful professional with a distinct ability to bring clients, community members, and governmental stakeholders together.
