

THE CASE FOR INCLUSION

News and Legal Analysis on Issues Related to Diversity and Inclusion

Boston And Worcester Receive Perfect Scores On LGBTQ Equality

BY AIVI NGUYEN • OCTOBER 21, 2016

Earlier this week, the Human Rights Campaign Foundation published its fifth annual Municipal Equality Index, a report that assesses cities and towns throughout the country on how inclusive their laws are to the LGBTQ community. Both Boston and Worcester, the first and second largest cities in New England, received perfect scores of 100 this year.

Bowditch & Dewey, LLP is proud to serve these two communities, where inclusion and advocacy is valued.

See the rest of the 2016 results on the Human Rights Campaign Foundation's website.