

THE CASE FOR INCLUSION

News and Legal Analysis on Issues Related to Diversity and Inclusion

Worcester Business Journal Quotes Tim Van Dyck in “Boardroom Gap: Women Vastly Underrepresented in Central Mass. Corporate Leadership”

BY TIMOTHY P. VAN DYCK • FEBRUARY 5, 2018

The Worcester Business Journal has quoted Tim Van Dyck in “Boardroom Gap: Women vastly underrepresented in Central Mass. corporate leadership.” The article discusses the skewed ratio of male vs. female presence in the corporate world and explores the gender makeup of more than 1,500 of the top executives and board members at 75 prominent Central Massachusetts business organizations.

Continue to the Worcester Business Journal website to read Tim Van Dyck’s commentary on these recent findings.