Nina Dow has been named to the Board of Directors of Colony Retirement Homes, a nonprofit organization that provides safe, affordable apartments, service coordination, and wellness services along with an invigorating independent living experience, specially designed and equipped for older adults.

At Bowditch, Nina practices in the firm's Estate, Financial & Tax Planning practice area and focuses on helping clients minimize transfer taxes by providing estate and tax planning strategies, including charitable giving, business succession planning, the representation of corporate and individual fiduciaries, and planning for individuals with special needs. In addition to helping clients create an estate plan, Nina's tax practice involves working closely with families to prepare state and federal estate tax returns following the death of a loved one.
